

STUDENT REFLECTION LETTER

What's the REAL DEAL about Masculinity?

When you submit your story, play or script to the Scenarios USA "What's the REAL DEAL about Masculinity?" writing contest you must include a Reflection Letter of at least 50 words in which you consider and write about what you've learned and how you've changed through participation. If you wrote your submission in a group, each writer in the group must include his or her own Reflection Letter with the submission. Please sign the letter below.

NAME OF WRITER: _____

TITLE OF SUBMISSION: _____

NAME OF SCHOOL/ORGANIZATION: _____

NAME OF TEACHER: _____

Please use extra paper as necessary and use the following questions as thinking points for your letter:

- What have you learned about masculinity?
- What have you learned about yourself?
- What have you learned about your community and the society in which you live?
- What was the biggest challenge you faced when responding to the question "What's the REAL DEAL about Masculinity?"

Student signature

Date